

Copyright policy

We take claims of copyright or other intellectual property infringement seriously. We will respond to notices of alleged copyright infringement that comply with applicable law. If you believe any materials accessible through our services infringe your copyright, you may request removal of those materials (or access to them) by submitting written notification to the address designated below. (For the ease of reference, "copyrights infringement" for the purposes of this document also means violations of other intellectual property rights.)

Your written notice must include substantially the following:

- Your physical or electronic signature.
- Identification of the copyrighted work you believe to have been infringed or, if the claim involves multiple works, a representative list of such works.
- Identification of the material you believe to be infringing in a sufficiently precise manner to allow us to locate that material.
- Adequate information by which we can contact you (including your name, postal address, telephone number, and, if available, email address).
- A statement that you have a good faith belief that use of the copyrighted material is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.
- A statement that the information in the written notice is accurate.
- A statement, under penalty of perjury, that you are authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner;
- identity document;
- consent to the processing of personal data, including the transfer of data to our client..

Notices should be sent to:
